TESTING NOTES:

- Appearance: Deep ruby red color with violet reflections.
- Aroma: Complex bouquet with ripe red fruits (cherry, mulberry, blackberry), hints of dried herbs, oak, and subtle spice notes from aging.
- Palate: Well-balanced and medium to full-bodied. The Boğazkere grape adds firm tannins and structure, while Öküzgözü brings freshness and vibrant fruit.
- Finish: Long and elegant, with lingering notes of dark cherry and soft oak spice.
- Style: Dry red wine – elegant and structured, reflecting southeastern Anatolia’s terroir.
